

THE HUDDLE

Trees Coalition calls on faith communities for Northside cleanup

Boy, has the Trees Coalition been busy getting ready for this weekend.

The group has called on area faith communities to pitch in Saturday on a major cleanup at and around the northern end of Cleveland Park on the city's Northside. So far, more than 100 people representing 28 different faith communities have signed up. Want to help? Email donnapruitt123@att.net or newthardie@aol.com, or call 864-582-0990.

There are two shifts – 10 a.m. to noon, and 1-3 p.m. The group asks that you park at Vita Federal Credit Union or Correll Insurance Group.

Also Saturday: Dory Davis will lead two classes on how to care for your chain saw. Those are at 9 a.m. and noon.

Time to roll up your sleeves and get your hands dirty for a good cause!

You ask, we answer: Stephen Sykes noticed that crane going up over at Spartanburg Medical Center and asked us about it.

Turns out, it's part of a 100,000-square-foot addition for the intensive care and telemetry units. Reporter Zach Fox has the story on today's front page.

–Have an event, some information, or a group you'd like to highlight in The Huddle? Have a question you'd like us to answer or a joke you'd like to share? Email us at huddle@shj.com.